ALERT TOP STORY

Camp Abilities Four Corners completes its fifth year

DAILY SUN STAFF Jul 21, 2026 0 1 min to read

Camp Abilities Four Corners held its fifth annual camp last month, with participants taking a three-day raft trip on the San Juan River and a hike down Bright Angel Trail at the Grand Canyon among other activities.

Camp Abilities Four Corners, Courtesy

Camp Abilities Four Corners held its fifth annual camp last month, with participants taking a three-day raft trip on the San Juan River and a hike down Bright Angel Trail at the Grand Canyon among other activities.

Camp Abilities Four Corners, Courtesy

DAILY SUN STAFF | Jul 21, 2026 | 0 | 1 min to read

Camp Abilities Four Corners held its fifth annual camp last month, with participants taking a three-day raft trip on the San Juan River and a hike down Bright Angel Trail at the Grand Canyon among other activities.

Camp Abilities Four Corners, Courtesy

Camp Abilities Four Corners recently wrapped up it fifth annual summer sports camp for visually impaired/blind children between the ages of nine and 17 years old.

Open to kids in the Four Corners area, the camp is supported by the Ancient Wayves river company, Delta Gamma Service for Sight, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, the Foreseeable Future Foundation and Camp Abilities World grants.

During the camp, the participants went on a three-day raft trip on the San Juan River after requesting an opportunity to camp, sleep on the ground in tents and have a campfire with s'mores. For the second half of the camp, the athletes then participated in hiking with adaptive hiking canes, swimming lessons, goalball, bocce ball and karaoke. The camp also hiked down Bright Angel Trail at the South Rim of the Grand Canyon.

For more information about the camp, visit its website at CampAbilitiesFourCorners.org or its Facebook and Instagram accounts at CampAbilitiesFourCorners. The camp will return from June 7 to 12 in 2027 and anyone interested in participating can contact Campabilitiesfourcorners@gmail.com