From June 9 to 14, Camp Abilities Four Corners hosted blind and visually impaired youth for the fourth year as the sports and recreation camp held activities in Page, Tuba City and Flagstaff.

Headquartered at the Cameron Trading Post, the camp hosted student-athletes from all of the Four Corners states of Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah. Typically unable to have the opportunity to participate in various activities in school, the camp attendees enjoyed rock climbing, wrestling, boxing, indoor and outdoor yoga, swimming and a hike along Lava Flow Trail at Sunset Crater.
